IMPORT TRADE BY COUNTRY

The Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, announced today that the decrease in United States general imports, unadjusted for seasonal variation, from $1,350.2 million in June to $1,337.1 million in July¹ reflected decreases in imports from some areas which were partly offset by increases in imports from others. Changes in the dollar values of imports from all areas from June to July were as follows: Canada, from $339.1 to $313.0 million; Latin American Republics, from $267.9 to $255.0 million; Western Europe from $355.7 to $359.1 million; and "all other countries", from $387.5 to $409.9 million.

From June to July, imports from sterling area countries rose from $228.8 to $245.5 million, while those from O.E.C.D. countries in Europe increased from $347.9 to $351.9 million. Decreases were noted in imports from the continents of North America, South America, and Australia and Oceania.

The drop in imports from North America from $449.0 million in June to $422.4 million in July was largely due to a decrease in imports from Canada, from $339.1 to $313.0 million. Imports from South America fell from $198.7 to $186.1 million as a substantial decrease in imports from Venezuela, from $84.7 to $66.2 million, was partly offset by small increases in imports from most of the countries of this continent. The decrease in imports from Australia and Oceania from $24.2 million in June to $31.9 million in July was chiefly the result of the decrease in imports from New Zealand and Western Samoa, from $15.0 to $7.9 million. However, this change was partly offset by an increase in imports from Australia, from $19.1 to $22.6 million.

¹On a seasonally-adjusted basis, total general imports were valued at $1,353.4 million in July as compared to $1,345.8 million in June. (See the July 1962 issue of Report No. FT 900-I.) Seasonally-adjusted data are not available by country of origin.

The increase in imports from Asia, from $242.6 to $262.6 million, was primarily due to higher levels of imports from individual countries of this continent as follows: Republic of the Philippines, from $31.2 to $40.2 million; India, from $16.1 to $21.3 million; Japan, from $116.7 to $120.2 million; and Federation of Malaya, from $13.0 to $16.2 million. However, imports from Kuwait dropped from $13.8 to $8.5 million. Imports from Africa rose from $61.7 to $66.4 million mainly due to the increases in imports from Sudan, from $0.1 to $3.3 million, and Republic of South Africa, from $16.9 to $18.8 million. Imports from Europe increased slightly from $362.8 to $365.9 million.

EXPLANATION OF STATISTICS

COVERAGE: Import statistics include merchandise imported by government agencies as well as by private importers, but exclude American goods returned by the United States armed forces for their own use. United States trade with Puerto Rico and United States possessions is not included in this report but the import trade of Puerto Rico with foreign countries is included as a part of the United States import trade. Merchandise shipped in transit through the United States between foreign countries is not included in import statistics. However, the statistics may include some merchandise (principally duty free) which is entered through United States Customs and subsequently exported in the same condition in which imported. In many cases, such merchandise differs from in transit merchandise only in the manner in which it is documented.

COUNTRY DEFINITION: Though the country which should be reported in the statistics as the country of origin is defined as the country where the merchandise was grown, mined or manufactured, the country actually shown in the statistics may in a number of cases represent some other country, such as the country of purchase, landing, or the country in which mixed lots of various origin are consolidated. It follows, therefore, that imports from such merchenting or transshipment countries are likely to be overstated and imports from other countries correspondingly understated.

VALUATION: Import values are, in general, based on market price or selling price, and are, in general, f.o.b. the exporting country. They exclude United States import duties. None of the values have been adjusted for changes in price level.

RELIABILITY: The statistics presented in this report are based partly on sample data (i.e. formal entries valued under $100 and all informal entries valued under $250), and therefore are subject to sampling variation that may cause them to differ somewhat from the results which would have been obtained from processing all import entries. The probable variability due to sampling is either less than $50,000 (the largest variation from rounding of figures) or less than 1 percent of the individual totals shown.

In addition to the effects of sampling variation, and the difficulties described above under COUNTRY DEFINITION, monthly import statistics are subject to some error from such sources as the carry-over of data from month to month in the compiling process and errors in reporting or processing. Although the effect of such errors on the rounded totals in this report is probably small, the possibility of inaccuracy should be taken into account, particularly in using figures of relatively small magnitude.

Further information regarding coverage, valuation, compilation procedures and precision of import data is contained in the foreword of Reports No. FT 110 and FT 120. For complete statement, see foreword in Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States.

UNITED STATES GENERAL IMPORTS, BY COUNTRY OF ORIGIN: JULY 1962 AND SELECTED PERIODS

(In millions of dollars. N.e.c. indicates not elsewhere classified. General imports are a total of imports for immediate consumption plus entries into bonded warehouses. Figures for 1962 are as originally issued and have not been revised to include published corrections. Figures for 1961 include all revisions published with the December 1961 reports, or earlier, and the special corrections announced in the January 1962 issue of this report, but do not include other revisions published during 1962. Totals represent sum of unrounded figures, hence may vary slightly from sum of rounded amounts.)
